

Miss Katharine Weston was in the city Wednesday.

Clinton R. Lee left over the Rock Island Thursday for a short stay in Davenport, Ia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Schweitzer of San Francisco are visiting with their daughter, Mrs. Henry L. Mayer, at 1637 H street.

The members of the Dorcas society met at the home of Mrs. T. R. French on Friday and elected officers for the ensuing year.

The first public recital of the University conservatory of music will be held in the chapel next Tuesday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Righter were at home to a number of friends on Wednesday evening.

Thursday Misses Helen and Lydia Mullen gave an informal card party at their home on N and Thirteenth streets. The evening was pleasantly spent by the following: Mrs. Schrool of Decatur, Ill.; Misses Margaret Baird, Nan Lillibridge and Hallie Hooper; Messrs. Fritz Westermann, Max Westermann, Fred Houtz, Newberry; Profs. Owens and Taylor.

The chrysanthemum show opened Wednesday in the Halter block under the auspices of the Lincoln Chrysanthemum society. The display was beautiful and the largest ever made in the state. The walls were banked with flowers. In the centre there were two large tables and one large circular stand filled with beautiful plants. Every professional florist in the city and numerous amateurs had an exhibit of plants or cut flowers.

The following young friends of Miss Sue Bartrum tendered her a jolly surprise on Friday evening. With music, dancing, games and delicious refreshments the evening passed so quickly that the young people hardly realized that it was time to bid their hostess good night. The following were present: Misses Mamie Joers, Edna Lane, Clara Hammond, Bird Hamilton, Helen Howland, Dot Druse, Bertie Hearn, Rosa Kohn, Clara Fowler, Sallie Berkson, Mabel Paush, Francis Burleigh, Bertha DuTeil, Clara Leese, Bernice Merrill, Mabel Doyle, Winnie Waller, Mattie Goodell, Marietta Cook, Helen Dority, Alice Benton, Etta Peters, Marie Feeney; Messrs. Herbert Stein, Frank Hawley, Will Cullen, Bert Hayden, Edwin Robertson, Charles Caldwell, Wint Rathburn, Edward O'Shea, Harry Newton, Will Stein, Edwin Morrison, Fred Joers, Gene Weckbach, Ed Fowler, Harry Mitchell, Paul Percell, Wilfred Smith, George Joers, Homer Webster, Gene Parks, Walter Beall, Lou Weckbach and Lee Knapp.

The Patriarchs will have a dance at the Lansing, Wednesday evening, November 28.

The Empire club will give a dance at the Lansing tonight.

The Round Table met Monday evening at the residence of Mr. S. H. Burnham.

Among the January weddings in prospect is that of W. E. Hardy and Miss Gertrude Laws.

RABBIT TIME.

Rabbit time, trappin' time

Dats de time fo' me.

Set mah trap,

So hit snap,

Hide behin' a tree.

Froo de snow, dar he go

Rabbit jumpin' past,

Gits de trail,

Wags his tail,

Crawls in—dat's de last.

Wid a clap down hit drap,

Rabbit caught fo' sho'—

In de jail,

Wifout bail,

Can't git out no mo'.

Den a pie, rabbit pie,

Decked in gran' array;

Jus' fo' two,

Me an' you,

On Thanksgibbin' Day.

—HENRY LIPINCOTT.

A charity party will be given in the Hotel Kimball, 1516 O street, Monday evening November 26, by a committee of ladies consisting of Mrs. A. E. Kennard, Mrs. A. G. Billmeyer, Mrs. W. J. Turner, Mrs. W. A. Preston, Mrs. O. M. Thompson and Mrs. R. M. Turner.

ADDITIONAL OMAHA.

To introduce to society Miss Crouse, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Hitchcock gave an "At Home" yesterday afternoon.

Last Saturday evening Miss Helen Smith entertained a few friends very informally for Miss Doak.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Ford gave a very jolly bowling party for Miss Chase on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Oscar Funke is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Hall.

Mrs. J. C. Wilson, of New York, is the guest of Mr. Robert W. Patrick, at Happy Hollow.

Miss McClelland invited a few friends in to drink tea on Thursday.

In honor of Mrs. Oscar Funke of Lincoln and Miss Gertrude Ringwalt, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Ringwalt will be at home to their many friends this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harbach are home from the east.

So far this season luncheons seem to be the most popular way of entertaining. On Thursday the Debutante Cooking club gave a very jolly one at the residence of Miss Webster. Friday Mrs. H. H. Benham of Fort Omaha entertained in that manner also the Misses Hamilton for Miss Doak; Miss Webster's guest. On Monday next Miss Dewey will give a luncheon for forty at the Paxton hotel, and the following Friday Miss Brown gives one in honor of Miss Buck.

Cream oatmeal soap—made by French process—is the latest soap on the market. Herpolsheimer & Co. are agents for Lincoln; price, box of 3 cakes for 12½ cents.

For cloaks and fur capes the season is rapidly drawing to a close, especially for desirable stuff. Herpolsheimer & Co. received another shipment yesterday. If it will interest you, see them as soon as you can as this will probably be the last shipment of the season.

THE COURIER'S VOTING GONTEST FOR $500 GASH.

Miss Carrie Wasmer.....	3067
Miss Effie Steen.....	2567
Miss Cora Talbot.....	381
Mr. Chris Camp.....	374
Mr. Chas. Hurd.....	162

If holder of COURIER No 3067 will bring it to THE COURIER office we will pay $5.00 for it.

Mr. Ross Curtice, a member of the firm of N. P. Curtice & Co. was the holder of COURIER No. 2006, for which we paid him $5.00.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE